

NIA CENTRE

FOR AFRICAN & CARIBBEAN CULTURE

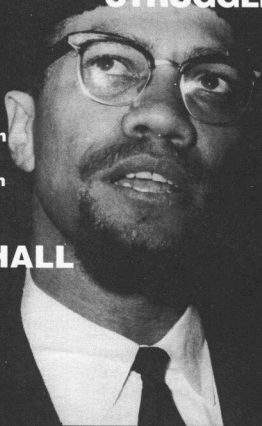

MALCOLM X, URBAN YOUTH & THE DIRECTION OF BLACK STRUGGLE

PROFESSOR ABDUL
ALKALIMAT LECTURES ON MALCOLM X

Tuesday 16th March
Book Fair 2.30pm - 7.00pm
(Admission Free)
Seminar 7.30pm - 10.30pm
Tickets £1.00

PAULE MARSHALL
AUTHOR OF DAUGHTERS
BOOK LAUNCH

Sunday 21st March
Time 7.30pm
Tickets £2.50
(£2.00 concs)

BOX OFFICE 061 227 9254
NIA CENTRE, CHICHESTER ROAD, HULME,
MANCHESTER M15 5EU

MALCOLM X, URBAN YOUTH & THE DIRECTION OF BLACK STRUGGLE

Professor Abdul Alkalimat lectures on MALCOLM X

This year, as part of the 11th International Book Fair of Radical Black and 3rd World Books, the Nia Centre will host its book fair followed by a lecture on Malcolm X by Professor Abdul Alkalimat. Dr Alkalimat is one of the most profound activists/scholars in the United States of America, and ever since Malcolm's death, has done more than anyone to promote an understanding of Malcolm and his relevance to Black liberation struggles.

Tuesday 16th March
Book Fair 2.30pm - 7.00pm Admission FREE
Seminar 7.30pm - 10.30pm
Tickets f 1.00

PAULE MARSHALL AUTHOR OF DAUGHTERS

The Nia Centre host's its first reading, conversation and debate with international writer and researcher Paule Marshall. "Brown Girl, Brownstone", Marshall's first novel, on which Alice Walker commented, "This book, so rich in complexity, history and beauty, is of great importance".

What the Critics have said about Daughter, Marshall's latest novel:

"Best novel of the year!" - Booklist

"A triumph in every way" - The New York Times Book Review

Listen, digest, and reason with Paule Marshall at the Nia Centre.

Sunday 21st March
Time 7.30pm
Tickets 92.50 (£2.00 concs)

Box Office: 061 227 9254

Nia Centre, Chichester Road, Hulme, Manchester M15 5EU

NORTH WEST ARTS BOARD

MANCHESTER
City Council
Defending Jobs - Improving Services

TASK FORCE
MOSS SIDE & HULME

